

BYLAWS OF THE ARTS AND SCIENCES COUNCIL
(Approved by the Faculty of Arts and Sciences April 13, 2006 & October 12, 2006)

I. Purposes As a faculty elective body, the Arts and Sciences Council represents the faculty and advises the Dean of Arts and Sciences and the Dean of Trinity College. The Council acts as a legislative body to approve the curriculum and academic regulations and policies for Trinity College undergraduates.

A. Advisory to the Dean of Arts and Sciences: The Arts and Sciences Council shall represent the faculty and advise the Dean of Arts and Sciences with respect to policy and priorities concerning issues that come before the Dean including budget; faculty development and compensation; support and policy for faculty research; teaching, research and administrative facilities; organization of departments and units within the faculty; areas of interaction between graduate and undergraduate programs such as teaching assistantships, and instructional budgets and teacher training. The Council is not limited to these issues but may investigate and express its views on any other matters of particular concern to the Arts and Sciences faculty.

B. Advisory to the Dean of Trinity College: The Arts and Sciences Council shall advise and assist the Dean of Trinity College in all aspects of undergraduate education. The Council shall insist that the highest academic standards be imposed in all undergraduate programs. The Council shall adopt academic regulations and legislate on curricular programs that use resources of, or grant undergraduate credit in, Arts and Sciences; consider all other matters affecting the academic and residential life and the learning environment of students and make recommendations and adopt regulations where appropriate; recommend policies on admissions and financial aid to students; and develop appropriate means of encouraging and recognizing academic achievement of superior quality among students.

II. Composition of the Council and Procedures for Election to the Council

A. Membership: The Arts and Sciences Council shall consist of a Chair and representatives of Arts and Sciences departments and programs that have regular rank faculty with primary appointments in that program. Except for the three military departments, which shall have one member and one alternate representing the three departments, each department or program shall have one representative and one alternate. Members shall be elected by the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. The Faculty of Arts and Sciences shall be composed of the members of the University faculty who are qualified to vote for the Academic Council and whose primary appointment is in a department or program of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. The Chair may hold a primary appointment in any Division. The Dean of Arts and Sciences, the Dean of Trinity College, and a representative of the Engineering Faculty Council are ex-officio members of the Council.

B. Terms of Office: The Chair and members of the Arts and Sciences Council shall serve three-year terms. The term of the Chair shall begin on May 15, and the terms of Members shall begin on August 1. Upon adoption of these bylaws, the first election for members will provide for staggered terms of office. After the first election all terms shall be for three years.

C. The Chair of the Arts and Sciences Council: The Chair of the Arts and Sciences Council shall preside over all meetings of the Council. The Chair shall make appointments to the Standing and Ad Hoc Committees of the Council in accordance with the Bylaws. The Chair shall head the Executive Committee and preside over all of its meetings. The Chair, in consultation with the Executive Committee, shall set the agenda for Council meetings. The Chair, in consultation with the Executive Committee, shall oversee all activities of the Council and its Committees. The Chair shall be the formal representative of the Arts and Sciences Faculty on all occasions when such representation is required. If the Chair is absent or indisposed, a member of the Executive Committee shall preside over meetings of the Arts and Sciences Council.

D. Executive Secretary to the Council: The Chair of the Council shall appoint an Executive Secretary to the Council from the Arts and Sciences Faculty or from among the body of retired Arts and Sciences Faculty. The Executive Secretary shall distribute the minutes of Council meetings to the faculty at large as required in the Bylaws. The Executive Secretary shall distribute notices of council meetings and the agenda to the faculty at large well in advance of such meetings. The Executive Secretary shall schedule the rooms to be used for these meetings. The Executive Secretary, in cooperation with the Committee on Nominations, shall conduct elections to the Council and to the Chairmanship of the Council. The Executive Secretary shall assemble and preserve in good order all minutes and official records of the Council. The Executive Secretary shall have a stipend, staff assistance and office space as determined by the Dean of Arts and Sciences. The Secretary shall have no fixed term but shall serve at the pleasure of the Chair of the Council.

E. Election to the Council: The Nominating Committee shall administer elections for membership to the Council as follows: In early March, the Nominating Committee shall send a request for nominations to all Arts and Sciences Faculty instructing each faculty member to nominate two members of their primary department or program to stand for election. The two nominees, or in the case of a tie up to three nominees, who receive the most nominations within each department or program and who agree to serve will be placed on the final ballot for that department. If a department fails to respond adequately, the Nominating Committee, in consultation with the Chair of the department, will seek additional nominations within the department. Before March 31, the faculty shall vote for one of the candidates from their primary department or program, and the candidate with the most votes will become a Council Member. The other candidate will serve as Alternate. Voting shall be by secret ballot either by mail or by electronic means. Votes shall be tallied promptly by the members of the Nominating Committee and the Executive Secretary who shall notify the faculty of the results without delay.

F. Election to the Chairship: The Chair of the Arts and Sciences Council shall be elected in an at-large election simultaneously with the election for ordinary Members of the Council. The Faculty of Arts and Sciences shall be presented with a slate of at least two faculty who have agreed to serve. The ballots shall provide for write-in candidates. The candidate with the highest vote shall win. Voting shall be by secret ballot either by mail or by electronic means. Votes shall be tallied by the Nominating Committee and the Executive Secretary, who shall promptly notify the faculty of the result.

G. Vacancies: Vacancies may occur in the event of an extended absence of an elected Member for academic leave or other reasons or by death, retirement or resignation from the University. When notified of either a temporary or permanent vacancy, the Chair shall appoint a replacement Member of Council. Replacement Members shall be appointed from the list of Alternate Members of Council (see below). Replacement Members shall serve either until the Member returns or until the next election.

H. Alternates: Unelected nominees to membership in the Council from the last election shall be considered Alternate Members of Council. If no Alternate is available for a department or program, the Chair of the Council, in consultation with the Executive Committee and the Department Chair, shall appoint a new Member from the faculty of the Department to be represented.

III. Meetings of the Council

A. Scheduled Meetings: The Arts and Sciences Council shall meet regularly once a month on the second Thursday of each full month of the academic year. The Chair may cancel regularly scheduled meetings for lack of business.

The Council may also meet at other times upon the call of the Chair or upon the written request of five or more Members or by written request of twenty or more Arts and Sciences faculty.

- B. Agenda: The agenda fixed by the Executive Committee shall be transmitted by electronic means at least five days in advance of each meeting of the Council to all members of the Arts and Sciences faculty.
- C. Minutes: Minutes of each meeting shall be taken by the Executive Secretary of the Council and promptly distributed in draft form to the entire faculty by electronic means. Minutes may be corrected by Council Members when they are approved at the following meeting.
- D. Voting Rights: Members of the Council shall serve in person and only members can vote. Each elected member of the Council shall have one vote on issues before the Council in its meetings. Ex-officio members have no voting rights in the Council. Proxy votes are not permitted. The Chair shall not vote except in the case of a tie vote.
- E. Rules of Procedure: The Council shall follow the rules set out in Robert's Rules of Order.
- F. Quorum: One half of the elected Members of the Council must be present to constitute a quorum.
- G. Absenteeism: The Chair, acting with the advice of the Executive Committee, may ask any Member to resign if he or she is absent without cause from an excessive number of Council meetings. The resulting vacancy will be filled by an Alternate Member of Council as specified in the bylaws.
- H. Open Meetings: Council meetings are open to all interested members of the University community and to the public. At the discretion of the Chair, non-Council members may be recognized to speak. The Chair may at any time declare a closed executive session for discussion of personnel or other sensitive matters.
- I. Parliamentarian: The Chair shall appoint one Member to serve as Parliamentarian who is conversant with the Council Bylaws and Robert's Rules of Order. The Parliamentarian shall advise the Chair on proper procedures for meetings and rule on contested points of order.
- J. Meetings of the Arts and Sciences Faculty: The Chair and the Executive Committee may call a meeting of the entire Arts and Sciences Faculty at any time. The agenda for the meeting must be distributed to all faculty at least ten days in advance of the meeting.

IV. The Executive Committee of the Council

- A. Composition: The Executive Committee shall consist of eight persons: the Chair, two Members from each academic division who are also Members of the Council, and ex officio the Dean of Arts and Sciences. Each spring the outgoing Executive Committee, in consultation with the newly elected Chair, shall prepare two slates of two Council members each who are drawn from the membership of the newly elected Council, taking care to assure a reasonable balance among the three curricular divisions of Humanities, Social Sciences, and Natural Sciences as Members rotate off the Executive Committee. These slates shall be submitted to the membership of the Council in advance of the final meeting of the academic year. Additional nominations may be received from the floor at that meeting, provided they have indicated their willingness to serve. At the final meeting, the Council shall elect one from each pair or set of names by secret ballot.
- B. Function: The Executive Committee shall advise the Chair in all matters pertinent to the work of the Council. The Executive Committee shall set the agenda for each meeting of the Council. The Executive Committee shall serve as the Committee on Committees and must approve all appointments to Standing and Ad Hoc committees of the Council.
- C. Meetings: The Executive Committee shall meet at the call of the Chair.

V. Changes to Bylaws These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of those Members present at a meeting of the Arts and Sciences Council. Notice of a proposed change in the bylaws must be circulated to the Members and to all Faculty in Arts and Sciences at least two weeks in advance of a meeting.

VI. Duties of Members and Standing Committees

- A. Committee Portfolios: The Chair shall assign a portfolio of committee responsibilities to each Members of the Executive Committee each year. Each Member shall be an ex officio, non-voting member of one or more Standing or Ad Hoc committees of the Council as designated by the Chair. Each Member shall ensure that there is a stable reporting relationship between the Standing or Ad Hoc committee and the Council and shall act as a liaison between the committees to which he or she has been assigned and the Council.
- B. Standing Committees: The Chair in consultation with the Executive Committee shall appoint the Chairs and all faculty members to all Standing Committees of the Council except for the Committees on Information Technology, Courses, Curriculum and Study Abroad. The Dean of Arts and Sciences shall appoint the chairs and members of the latter four committees from a list of nominees submitted by the Chair of the Council. The Chair, Executive Committee and Council are charged with actively monitoring the activities of the standing committees. Members of all Standing Committees shall be appointed for three year terms. The duties and membership of the various Standing Committees shall be as follows:
